

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

O R D E R

Pursuant to 5th Cir. R. 25.21, and as previously announced widely, attorneys must use the court's electronic filing system effective March 15, 2010. Except for original proceedings, e.g. mandamus petitions, petitions for agency review, etc., which must be filed initially in paper form, all other documents, e.g. briefs, motions, petitions for rehearing, etc., must be filed initially in PDF text format. The clerk will advise these filers when to send in paper copies of the electronic filings.

Attorneys unable to comply with the electronic filing rules must file a motion to be excused from electronic filing and show good cause why they cannot participate, see 5th Cir. R. 25.2.3.
